

BIAS AND BELONGING

A day with Hedreich Nichols Author, Educator, Host of #SmallBites

Hedreich Nichols is an author and educational consultant helping teachers and districts amplify the voices of all students. With her Solution Tree title, Finding Your Blind Spots: 8 Guiding Principles to Overcome Implicit Bias in Teaching, Hedreich combines her experience as a “One Black Friend” and educator with academic research and pedagogical strategies to ensure that educators have the skills and knowledge they need to create more equitable classrooms and campuses.

March 2, 2023

8:30-3:30pm

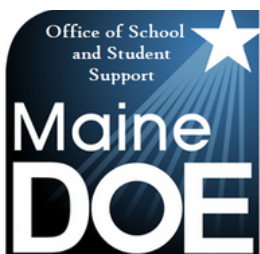

Jeff's Catering

East/West Industrial Park

15 Eventcenter Way, Brewer, ME, 04412

Register using this link: (INSERT LINK TO EVENT)

Space is limited/Registration Required

Contact: Melanie Junkins

melanie.junkins@maine.gov

Family Engagement and Cultural Responsiveness Specialist

Bias and Belonging

March 2, 2023

Schedule
8:15-8:30	Check-in
8:30-9:15	Keynote "Bias and Belonging"
9:15-10:35	Interactive Bias "Pulse Check"
10:35-10:45	Break
10:45-11:25	Statistics and Status Quo
11:25-11:55	Rules and Role Play (Collaborative Work)
11:55-12:10	Q and A with Hedreich
12:10-12:40	Lunch
12:40-1:15	Collaborative sessions in accountability/focus groups
1:15-1:40	Music and games
1:40-1:50	Break
1:50-2:15	Group presentations and feedback
2:15-2:45	The audience speaks
2:45-3:00	Q&A
3:00-3:30	Closing Remarks